3K

This week in 3K, we dove into the cozy world of hibernation! 🐻❄️ We kicked things off by learning all about groundhogs and Groundhog Day. We read Scholastic News and watched the big reveal together. Some friends cheered and some groaned about six more weeks of winter, but everyone agreed — Phil is pretty cute! We also learned about other animals that hibernate and even made our very own books. During small groups, we put a fun hibernation twist on our learning by practicing rhyming words, shapes, and letters.

One of our favorite stories this week was Bear Snores On, about a bear who sleeps right through a party in his cave — so silly! To finish the week, we practiced our math skills by measuring our (stuffed, of course!) bears with cubes.

So much learning, so much fun, and lots of cozy animal adventures — what a great week to be in 3K!

Little children, let us love in deed and in truth, and not merely talk about it. (1 John 3:18)

Happy 100th day from kindergarten!

We made glasses, got to build with 100 of certain items, we made 10 groups of 10 of ten dots, we predicted how far 100 steps was in the hall, as well as, what in our room was 100 inches! Check out our disguised 100 drawings!

1ST GRADE

Happy 100th Day of School!!

In 1st grade, we...

- designed and created with 100 cups and 100 Legos!

- completed 100 exercises with our 2nd grade friends.

- hunted for 100 chocolate kisses in the gym with 2nd, 3rd, and 4th grade friends.

- counted 100 stickers and shook dice until we colored in 100 coins.

- drew pictures of ourselves at 100 years old and included items that we will use when we are that old 😊

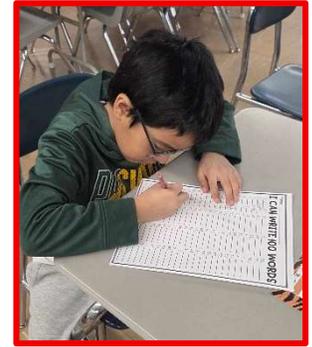

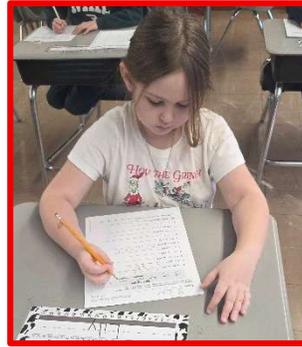

St. Mary School third grader Conrado had a Picnic with the Principal on Wednesday, Feb. 4. Principal Mary Yauck said that it was such a pleasure having lunch with Conrado. She said that he is so grown up. There was no discussion about recess and lunch being his favorite things to do at school. They talked about sports and how basketball and football are his favorites. Conrado is really good at catching a football, so he wants to be a tight end. He also told Mrs. Yauck that he won't be spending more than a minute in the house this summer, except to sleep, because he will be perfecting the skateboarding tricks that he has learned. Conrado's favorite place to go with his family is to a state park where they have a huge skateboard area set up with ramps and obstacles. He said that he is looking forward to middle school and having the new school to themselves.

2ND GRADE

This week in ELA (English Language Arts), students focused on building their writing and spelling skills. We completed a 100-word writing challenge to practice organizing ideas and using strong sentences. Students also worked on their spelling words by completing a crossword puzzle and unscrambling activity to help reinforce correct spelling and word recognition. Great job 2nd graders!

3RD GRADE

We had some division fun in 3rd grade math this week! We also had some 100th day of school fun!

Happy 100th Day of school! Our fourth graders not only created our 100 days posters, but we partook in a Money Distribution Lab where we explored division through the reallocation of money. We also read another chapter of our Sacagawea Biography where we learned how to show empathy for our characters and their situations.
